Cell Phone/Electronic Device Policy

Students who bring cellphones, earbuds, AirPods, headphones, and other electronic devices on campus are subject to rules regarding their use:

- Cell phones are only allowed in the cafeteria, hallway, or with staff permission.
- Earbuds, AirPods, and headphones are prohibited from being worn in all school areas unless permitted by staff.
- Students should not charge their personal cell phones or devices at school.
- Students are responsible for securing their electronic devices and keeping them in a safe place. All students are assigned a locker and lock.
- If a cell phone is misused or considered part of an investigation it can be searched or seized by the administration.

Administration is not responsible for investigating or recovering any loss or theft of cell phones and/or other electronic devices brought to school.*
